Keep Martin Beautiful looking for nominees who care about environment

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO is quietly making a difference in helping the environment but receives no recognition? Has your youth or civic group been involved in an eco-friendly project or program?

Do you work for a company or government agency that has developed a new technology that conserves water or reduces energy?

The nonprofit organization Keep Martin Beautiful is seeking nominations for individuals, businesses, civic and nonprofit groups, and government agencies in Martin County for the 2015 Environmental Stewardship Awards.

The Awards Ceremony will take place on Feb. 4, 2015 at Piper's Landing Yacht & Country Club in Palm City.

"We work with so many volunteers and groups throughout the year who participate in litter removal, recycling programs and community cleanups, as well as beautification and revitalization efforts," said Jim Dragseth, KMB Board of Director's president. "There is no other ceremony in our community that acknowledges these individuals and organizations for the important work they do."

Nominate in these categories:

- Youth/School Group
- Nonprofit/Civic Group
- Business
- Government Agency
- Individual/Unsung Hero

Areas of Focus include:

- Litter and marine debris prevention/removal
- Recycling programs/activities
- Beautification
- Neighborhood revitalization
- Innovative projects
- Environmental stewardship

There is no entry fee. Self nominations are highly encouraged, as few people know the project details as well as those that completed them.

The deadline to submit a nomination is Dec. 1. Nomination forms are available online at keepmartinbeautiful.org. Contact KMB at 772-781-1222 or e-mail events@keepmartinbeautiful.org for more information.
