

MARTIN COUNTY Hometown News

Vol. 13, No. 37

www.HometownNewsOL.com

Friday, Feb. 13, 2015

Making a difference

Left: Members of the Sea Star Unit of the Girl Scouts of S.E. Florida, Madison Riegelman, Sophia Fachetti, Taylor Riegelman, and Chloe Keating, receive the 2015 Youth/School Program Award presented by Jennifer Stull-Wise for their participation in the 2014 Great American Clean Up with Volunteer Service Unit Manager Jeri G.

Right: Mary Kindel, right, presents twelve year old Veronica Dalton with the 2015 River Advocate Award for her involvement with the Indian River Lagoon and St. Lucie River, speaking out to raise awareness.

Right: President and Founder of the FireFly Group Stacy Ranieri, right, presents the 2015 award for 'Education in Action' to award-winning author, illustrator and speaker Janeen Mason for 'Solidarity Fish', her project to raise awareness to the plight of the Indian River Lagoon.
Sevin Bullwinkle
staff photographer

The Environmental Stewardship Awards Ceremony, hosted by Keep Martin Beautiful, was held at Pipers Landing Yacht and Country Club on Wednesday, Feb. 4. For more information please call (772) 781-1222 or e-mail events@keepmartinbeautiful.org.