

Luminaries

Feb. 22, 2016

Martin Co., St. Lucie Co., Indian River Co.

Where the Stars Come Out Every Monday

STARS WERE OUT

Keep Martin Beautiful Environmental Stewardship Awards

By JACKLYN HOUFLER
For Luminaries

Keep Martin Beautiful celebrated environmental stewardship and innovation at Pipers Landing Yacht & Country Club in Palm City.

Each year, the nonprofit bestows its prestigious awards of excellence on residents who have engaged in projects that improve the quality of life on the Treasure Coast.

A packed house at cheered the following: Business Award Winner - Caulkins Water Farm; Government Agency Award Winner - Martin County's Ecosystem Restoration & Management Division; Unsung Hero Award Winner - Anna Bergalis; Nonprofit/Civic Group Award Winner - Florida Oceanographic Society; Youth/School Group Award Winner - Warfield Green Team; River Advocate Award Winner - Nicole Mader; Innovation Award Winner, Sublime Soil Inc.; Raleigh "Riley" Jackson Award Winner - Darrell Schuler; KMB Presidents Award Winner - Suzanne Stout & JD Paker Green Team; and KMB Staff Choice Award Winner - Adriana Mancini.

Event organizer Stacy Ranieri, Ed Ciampi, Pam Roebuck and Stuart Mayor Jeff Krauskopf

Sam Amerson and city of Stuart Commissioner Tom Camp

Melanie Dunnuck, Danielle Collins, Donna Robinson, Karen Powell and Sheila Pawluk, all of Felix A. Williams Elementary School

Terri Kehler, Kathleen Moeller and Jean Ferreira

Elaine Matts, Lois Arinapura and Pat Arney

Erna, Erica, Gayle and Nominee Adam Forster

Hank Cushard, Wilson Riggan and David Elliot, all of Coast Guard Flotilla 59 Stuart

Commodore David Elliott of Coast Guard Flotilla 59 Stuart and Capt. Don Voss

Barbara Flynn and Margaret Hickey

Award winner Adriana Mancini, Celeste Norup and Janet Church

Susan Maxwell, Jennifer Trent and Kelley Decoswki

Mike Drum and Edgar Stout

Anne Wheeler and Deborah Drum

Maria Rich and Denise Ehrich