Martin County

KMB deadline near

Each year Keep Martin Beautiful (KMB) hosts the Environmental Stewardship Awards to recognize and reward notable efforts within the community to promote environmental stewardship and innovation through education and action. The annual awards ceremony will be Feb. 6, and KMB is looking for individuals, families, businesses, civic and youth groups, schools and government agencies that are helping improve the quality of life in Martin County to be nominated for an award. The deadline for nominations, however, is just a few days away on Dec. 5. There is no fee to submit an application. For information, call Jessica Layne at (772) 287-5272.
