

The 2014 Environmental Stewardship Award Winners

Business

Ecological Associates

Your Turtle Friendly Beach Renourishment Test Project

Government Agencies

Martin County Utilities & Solid Waste

Achieving the highest recycling rate among all 67 counties in the State of Florida

Individual/Unsung Hero

Louise Carnevale

For your decades of services as a passionate advocate for protecting Martin County's natural environment

Non-profit & Civic Group

Florida Oceanographic & Martin County

Your Martin County Living Shores Project

Youth & School

Jensen Beach High School Marine II

Projects throughout Martin County, River Advocacy, Storm Drain Labeling, Oyster Bagging, and more

Innovation

R3 Recycling

For helping Martin County achieve the highest recycling rate in the state through your operation at the county's landfill by diverting more than 75% of construction and demolition debris for recycling or reuse.

River Advocate

The River Kidz

For your passion, diligence and advocacy in raising awareness about the challenges facing our river and estuary and helping to cultivate the next generation of environmental stewards.

Riley Jackson

Vincent Maurici

Your long-standing dedication to Keep Martin Beautiful and your support of the Adopt-A-Road program as well as your creative use of old tires to create a playground equipment for school children.

Environmental Leadership Award

Congressman Patrick Murphy

in appreciation of Your ability and determination to focus bi-partisan federal government attention on the environmental challenges facing our community and to your commitment to finding solutions to protect the health and well-being of the St. Lucie River and Indian River Lagoon.

KMB Presidents Award

Adriana Mancini Teen Volunteer: Bessey Creek Team Green
Recycle Buddies

For helping to create Bessey Creek Elementary (BCE) Green Recycle Buddies and continuing to serve as a teen volunteer and an inspiration to younger students.